SELECTMEN'S REPORT

Inventories

Your attention is again called to the importance of the return to the Selectmen's office of your COMPLETED INVENTORY. Your failure in the return of inventory blank containing complete information in regards to sale transactions, improvements or additions may eliminate consideration of your tax assessment and may possibly invoke the application of the Article of Doomage, fully explained under the law governing return of your completed inventory, printed on the last page of all inventories.

Selectmen's Office

The Board of Selectmen meet at the Town Hall on the second and fourth Monday evening of the month and are always at your service to answer any reasonable questions that may pertain to Town operations.

We expect to cooperate with the Bookmobile for library service to our school children. A beginning has been made to weed, from our crowded shelves, some of the older books — still held in reserve — so as to make room for additional children's books.

We would recommend an increased appropriation at the next town meeting to meet higher book and operating costs.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE

During the year of 1961 I have made nursing visits to all age groups with the exception of school children. This includes the regular program of health supervision, clinics, and referrals from the various Doctors.

As a result of the immunization survey conducted by the Child Health Committees of Grafton and Danbury, a series of immunization clinics was held at the East Grafton School for the residents of Danbury and Grafton. Dr. Dinerman was the attending physician and gave injections to a total of 114 people.

Fluoride programs were held for the towns of Newbury, Salisbury, Sutton, and Wilmot. A total of 89 pre-school children attended. In March and November two chest clinics were held in Franklin under the direction of Dr. Robert Kerr. X-Rays were received by 165 persons.

At this time I wish to express my gratitude to the Child Health Committee and the Selectmen for the fine cooperation and help that I have received.

A special word of thanks goes to all of those people who gave of their own time and funds during the planning and building and getting the school ready for occupation.
